

Ca So Co Ce

20 school
the C n di

Your publication details and time will appear here. | Source: C n d Comp ny

o

New for this year, C n d Comp ny lso presented $5,000 post-gr d te schol rships to two p st recipients who h ve decided to contin e beyond their post-second ry st dies.

Following this ye r's ceremony, tot l of 4, in C n d Comp ny Schol rships h s been w rded to 77 students from 45 milita y families since 2007.

"At C n d Comp ny, we know there re m ny w ys to serve those who serve o r co ntry," s id Bl ke Goldring, Fo nder nd Ch ir of C n d Comp ny. " e're pro d to s pport the children of o r f llen thro gh the C n d Comp ny Schol rship Progr m nd hono red to help in this sm ll w y so r recipients p rs e their st dies nd contin e to m ke their lost loved ones pro d."

At tod y's ceremony, L r Sq ires of Edmonton, p st schol rship recipient nd Amber Vi llette of H lif x, the mother of p st recipient ddressed the crowd nd sh red how the fin nci l s pport they received from C n d Comp ny helped their f milies.

This ye r's recipients re loc ted in the following comm nities cross C n d :

- H lif x, NS
- Kingston, NB
- Fredericton, NB
- New M ryl nd, NB
- Moncton, NB
- Montre l, QC
- Orle ns, ON
- Kingston, ON
- Toronto, ON
- Peterboro gh, ON
- innipeg, MB
- S sk toon, SK
- Red Deer, AB

Over the ye rs, the C n d Comp ny Schol rship Progr m h s exp nded beyond those who served in the Afgh nist n mission to s pport the children of o r men nd women in niform who lost their lives on:

- other missions;
- in tr ining-rel ted ctivities; nd
- s res lt of inj ries rel ted to PTSD.

" e're pro d of how m ch the Cte b c) O x h A 2 x m N H 2 N N i 4 N i N O I C extends further beyond our scholarship program. For more information, visit cncd.com/ny.c."

About Canada Company

Canada Company is a charitable, non-profit organization that serves to build the bridge between business and community leaders and the Canadian Military. Our goal is to ensure that the men and women in our Canadian Armed Forces receive the widest support, care and recognition that they deserve. Canada Company was founded in 2001 by Canadian businessman Blake Goldring, C.M., M.S.M., CD. 